

ZIEGENBEIN PROMOTED AT KZCO

Zak Ziegenbein

Zak Ziegenbein is assuming additional responsibilities in Marketing and Sales Support at KZCO. In his new role, he will work directly with the marketing department designing and implementing various marketing campaigns for the Company as well as supporting the sales department in customer service, lead generation and various other sales functions. Zak is currently IT Administrator at KZCO and also oversees much of the building and grounds.

Ziegenbein has been around the family owned business since he was a child and started at the ground floor by working in various production jobs while attending college in 2003. After college, he worked as a sales associate traveling on behalf of KZCO to numerous trade shows and sales events. Ziegenbein also did work in graphic art and web design and then later supported and improved upon the IT infrastructure of the Company.

Ziegenbein has an AAS degree in Business Administration from Southeast Community College in Lincoln, Nebraska. He is currently working towards becoming Microsoft Certified.

Ziegenbein is married to his high school sweetheart Jenny, and they have a son Gavin and daughter Madelyn. They reside near Gretna.
